CASELL'S
Latin Dictionary

(Latin-English and English-Latin)

260th THOUSAND

Thoroughly Revised and corrected by J. R. V. MARCHANT, M.A., formerly scholar of Wadham College, Oxford; and JOSEPH F. CHARLES, B.A., late assistant master at the City of London School.

It is above all intended to be a dictionary of classical Latin, and thus, in this new edition, a large number of archaic, or post-Augustan, words have been omitted, while nearly all of the important articles have been entirely rewritten, chiefly with a view of introducing a greater number of quotations to illustrate construction and usage.
The historical and geographical notices have been largely increased in number.
In addition to the regular vocabulary features the book contains a table of the Roman Calendar, and a Geographical Glossary of the English names of important places with classical or later Latin equivalents.

Octavo, Cloth, 928 Pages. $2.50; with Patent Double Thumb-Notch Index, 75c. extra. Full Flexible Morocco, Bible Paper, Indexed, $6.00.
